

Contents

Writing the Humanities

|   |   |
|---|---|
| Aleksandra Kremer Writing the Humanities – Preliminary Remarks ..... | 1 |
|---|---|

Essays and commentaries

|   |    |
|---|----|
| Irena Grudzińska-Gross Tragicomedy with Seven Hundred Footnotes .....                                      | 6  |
| Eliza Kačka Ende .....   | 10 |
| Katarzyna Bartoszyńska Full of Wonder .....  | 16 |
| Joanna Rzepa Writing about Polish Literature in an Age of “Post-Global”Literary Studies .....         | 18 |
| Stanley Bill Polish Studies and the “Decolonization” Paradigm afterRussia’s Invasion of Ukraine ..... | 23 |

Articles

|   |    |
|---|----|
| Justyna Tabaszewska Paradoxes of Academic Writing and the Challengeof Double Coding .....   | 30 |
| Artur Hellich How (and Why) Was the Language of Literary StudiesDisputed? .....   | 43 |
| Łukasz Żurek The Poem as a Drying River and Our Sensibility.On Contemporary Ecocriticism in Literary Studies .....                          | 61 |
| Ewelina Drzewiecka Literature and Religion. Traditions of Polish andBulgarian Humanities in the Perspective of Cultural Confrontation ..... | 78 |