Submission Guidelines for the Journal

“Modern Medicine: Studies in Medical Culture”

(Medycyna Nowożytna. Studia nad Kulturą Medyczną)

Submission Information

The Editorial Board accepts original research articles not previously published in other journals for the following sections:

- Studies: Synthetic articles featuring the authors' original conclusions and reflections.
- Analytical Works and Anachronica: Source-based, bibliographic, or analytical texts.
    - The Anachronica section also includes study-length articles that fall outside the chronological scope of "modern medicine."
- From Archives, Libraries, and Museums
- Reviews and Discussions
- Academic Chronicles

Submission Process:

Works must be submitted exclusively via email. Submissions must include:

- Abstracts in both Polish and English (up to 1,000 characters each).
- Keywords in both Polish and English.
- The English translation of the article title.
- A Reference List (Bibliography) at the end of the article.

All files (manuscript and additional documents) should be sent to: medycynanowozytna@ihnpan.pl.

Required Attachments:

1. Author Declaration: A scanned, completed, and signed copy (available on the journal’s website).
2. Biographical Note: Including education, profession, affiliation, ORCID number, and mailing/email addresses for correspondence.

Note: Upon acceptance for publication, a formal publishing agreement will be signed between the Publisher and the Author.

Manuscript Requirements (Style Guide)

- Length: Up to 1 "publishing sheet" (approx. 40,000 characters including spaces and footnotes, or roughly 20 A4 pages).
- Format: .doc or .docx (Microsoft Word). Do not send PDFs.
- Typography: Times New Roman, 12 pt, 1.5 line spacing.
- Footnotes: Located at the bottom of the page, 10 pt font, using Arabic numeral superscripts.
- Page Numbering: Placed in the bottom-right corner.
- Header: The author's full name, affiliation, and ORCID number should appear in the top-left corner of the first page.
- Titles: The title should follow the header, justified, without bolding. Include the English title, abstracts, and keywords immediately below.
- Spacing and Layout: Do not use unnecessary spacing. Subheadings should be left-aligned with no extra line breaks, bolding, or underlining.
- Illustrations and Tables: Must be captioned, numbered, and include a source credit at the bottom. The desired placement within the text must be clearly indicated.
- Quotations: Use quotation marks; do not use italics for quotes.
- Emphasis: Use italics for book titles. Use quotation marks for journal titles.
- Abbreviations: Use standard abbreviations.
- Dates:
    - In the main text: Spell out months (e.g., October 2, 1809).
    - In footnotes: Use numerical format (e.g., 15.03.1941).

Footnote Citation Format:

- Journals: Initial of the first name, Surname, Title of the Article (italics), "Title of the Journal" (in quotes), Year, Volume, Issue/Number, Page(s).

    K. K. Smith, Lalalalla lalallala lalallaal, „XXXXXX", 2022, Vol. 1, iss. 1, p. 32.
- Books: Initial of the first name, Surname, Title (italics), Publisher, Place and Year of Publication, Page(s).

    K. K. Smith, Lalalall, Brown Press, London 2022, p. 1.
- Repeated Citations: Use Latin abbreviations such as ibidem or op. cit. (not italicized).

Final Bibliography:

At the end of the article, provide a complete bibliography categorized into:

1. Primary Sources
2. Secondary Literature (Studies)
3. Websites/Electronic Sources