

Yearbook of Conrad Studies vol. 11 / 2016 Contents CORR.

Lukasz Front (Jagiellonian University, Cracow)

Poles' Trouble with an Author – Compatriot:

Issues of Joseph Conrad-Korzeniowski's Patriotism.

Yusuke Takahata (Saitama University, Tokyo)

Marlow's Psychology and His Two Perspectives in Lord Jim

Agata Kowol (Jagiellonian University, Cracow)

Emotions versus Self-knowledge in Joseph Conrad's Lord Jim and The Shadow-Line

Majda Šavle (University of Primorska)

Joseph Conrad's The End of the Tether: Les jeux sont faits

Nic Panagopoulos (National & Kapodistrian University of Athens)

Romeo and Juliet: A New Context for Victory?

Narain Prasad Shukla (Hadhramout University, Yemen)

Braving the Seas: The Swimmer Image in Conrad's Fiction

Maggie Holland (University of British Columbia in Vancouver)

Detecting Kunstlerroman in Conrad's The Secret Agent: A Self-reflexive Type

Joanna Skolik (University of Opole)

Tracing Conrad's Duelists. Review of: John H. Stape and John G. Peters. Conrad's "The Duel": Sources /Text, Leiden, Boston: Brill, Rodopi, 2015, 180 pp.

Agnieszka Adamowicz Pośpiech (University of Silesia in Katowice)

Reclaiming Conrad in Poland. Reviews of: Joseph Conrad a Polska [Joseph Conrad and Poland]. Vol. I, 2011, pp. 367 and: Polskość i europejskość w Josepha Conrada wizjach historii, polityki i etyki [Polishness and Europeanism in Joseph Conrad's vision of history, politics and ethics]. Vol II, 2013, pp. 324. Ed. Wiesław Krajka, Lublin: Maria Curie-Skłodowska University Press.

Agnieszka Adamowicz Pośpiech (University of Silesia in Katowice)

Review of: John Gerard Peters (ed.) The Secret Sharer and Other Stories, Norton Critical Editions, New York & London 2015, pp. 599.