

Contents

Introduction (Anna Paner, Michał Kosznicki).	9
Roman Baron
Polish-Czech Group for Textbooks of Polish-Czech Scientific Society.	13
Magdalena Blackmore
‘The stories my father told me’: using interviews in teaching Polish history in North America	23
Waldemar Borzestowski
Johann Reinhold and Georg Forster, 18th-century naturalists and travellers	31
Marcin Dyś
Changes in narration describing Polish-Russian relations in history teaching course books in Polish People’s Republic from 1944 to 1989 (based on selected historical events).	52
Maciej Fic
Half of the century of historical education at the University of Silesia in Katowice. From the history of the Institute of History, University of Silesia (1969–2019)	68
Paul Flynn
Challenging Didactic History Teaching Activities: A Framework for Change in Initial History Teacher Education Broad Topic	78
Blažena Gracová
Canon of “great” Czechs and its role by formation of national identity of schoolchildren through history teaching	100
Piotr Koprowski
Ideological-progressive and educational contexts of humanistic education in the “Pedagogical Review” in the eighties and nineties of the 19th century.	120

Wojciech Kruczkowski

Adult Education in Polish Guard Companies Working for the US Army
in Europe after 1945 131

Magdalena Nowak

Gente Rutheni, natione Poloni in Polish and Ukrainian scholarly encyclopaedias and biographical dictionaries. 150

Agnieszka Pierz

The birth of the conception of junior high schools and its implementation in Poland between 1997–1999 161

Iwona Sakowicz-Tebinka

The role of historical education in “The Penny Magazine” 1832–1845 180

Karol Sanojca

Historical education in Ukrainian gymnasiums during the Second Polish Republic 190

Przemysław Waszak

Introduction to the history of art – review of latest literature. 199

Wirginia Węglińska

Education in martyrological museums on the example of selected activities of Stutthof Museum in w Sztutowo 217