

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Editorial Note	XIII
----------------------	------

DISSERTATIONS AND ESSAYS

1. Anna Kocot, The Problem of Typographic Design in the Studies on Old Polish Book	151
2. Jakub Niedźwiedź, The Use of Books in 16th-century Vilnius	167
3. Jakub Koryl, Troeltsch's Difficult Legacy. Critical Remarks on the Two Models of Protestant Reformation Studies. Part 1: Terms (Ecumenism – Irenicism – Toleration) and Doctrines	185
4. Jakub Koryl, Troeltsch's Difficult Legacy. Critical Remarks on the Two Models of Protestant Reformation Studies. Part 2: Histories (Confessionalisation – Reformation – Humanism – Hermeneutics) and Perspectives (Modernisation)	229

REVIEWS AND ANALYSES

1. Kaja Szymańska, Neil MacGregor, A History of the World in 100 Objects, first published in print in October 2010 by Allen Lane imprint of Penguin Books, pp. 640	275
2. Andrzej Tadeusz Staniszewski, Jack Goody, Renaissances. The One or The Many?, transl. by Ireneusz Kania, Czytelnik, Warszawa 2012, pp. 412	283

EDITIONS AND TRANSLATIONS

1. Grzegorz Franczak, Antonio Querenghi, Carmen ad Urbem Romam in adventu Serenissimi Vladislai Poloniae Principis (1625)	295
2. Antonio Querenghi, Carmen ad Urbem Romam in adventu Serenissimi Vladislai Poloniae Principis (1625) , ed. and transl. by Grzegorz Franczak	306
Notes on Authors	313

