

AUTHORS BIOGRAPHIES

Prof. Olivier Forcade – Professor of international relations at Sorbonne Université, Faculty of Letters, Paris. His recent researches deal with intelligence in the 20th century: La République secrète. Histoire des services spéciaux militaires français, NME, 2008; Jacques Foccart : archives ouvertes (1958–1974). La politique, l’Afrique et le monde, PUPS, 2017 avec Jean-Pierre Bat et Sylvain Mary; Dans le secret du pouvoir. L’approche française du renseignement XVIIe–XXIe siècles, NME, 2019 with Sébastien-Yves Laurent. He has published about refugees and evacuated persons in modern international politics, especially Les Evacuations en Europe pendant les guerres mondiales, Metropol Verlag, 2014 avec Rainer Hudemann, Nicholas Williams, Fabian Lemmes, Johannes Grossmann and Exils intérieurs. Les évacuation à la frontière franco-allemande 1939–1940, PUPS “Mondes contemporains”, 2017 with Mathieu Dubois, Johannes Grossmann, Fabian Lemmes, Rainer Hudemann. Contact: olivier.forcade@sorbonne-universite.fr

Prof. Rainer Hudemann – Professeur des université émérite and Univ.-Prof. em. Dr. Dr.h.c. Emeritus professor of Contemporary history of Germany and German speaking countries at Sorbonne Université, Paris (active 2010–2015), Emeritus professor of Contemporary history at the Saarland University (active 1985–2013). Recent publications: Exils intérieurs. Les évacuation à la frontière franco-allemande 1939–1940, PUPS “Mondes contemporains”, 2017 with Mathieu Dubois, Olivier Forcade, Johannes Grossmann, Fabian Lemmes; dir. with Alexander Friedman: Diskriminiert – vernichtet – vergessen. Behinderte in der Sowjetunion, unter nationalsozialistischer Besatzung und im Ostblock 1917–1991, Stuttgart: Franz Steiner Verlag 2016; dir. with Mathieu Dubois : Historiographie allemande du Temps présent. thematic issue of the «Histoire, Économie & Société» 2/2016. Among other main research interests: Transnational processes and memories, elites in international comparison, international transfer in urban history (19th–21st c.). ORCID no.: 0000-0002-7199-6808. Contact: rainer.hudemann@sorbonne-université.fr; hudemann@mx.uni-saarland.de

Kamil Kartasiński, MA – PhD student at the Institute of History of the University of Silesia, employee of the Museum in Gliwice. His research interests revolve around oral history and contemporary history. He is also interested in the history of the Second World War, the history of Germany in 1871–1945 and issues related to the didactics of history. He is preparing a doctoral thesis on Poles having been deported to Siberia who emigrated to the USA after the Second World War. Author of the book Chłopak z Wehrmachtu. Żołnierz Andersa (2018). Author of several scientific articles, co-author of historical exhibitions, participant of national and international research projects and grants. He cooperates with the Institute of National Remembrance and Haus der Deutsch-Polnischen Zusammenarbeit. ORCID no.: 0000-0003-1245-0319. Contact: kamil.kartasinski@gmail.com

Patryk Mameczur, MA – PhD student at the Faculty of History of the Jagiellonian University; historian, musicologist and Americanist. Research interests: British and American popular music, influence of the Western music on the Polish big beat music, associations of the music with social transformations, methodology of research on the popular music. ORCID no.: 0000-0001-7833-9694. Contact: patryk.mameczur@gmail.com

Mikołaj Murkociński, MA – PhD student at the Faculty of History of the Jagiellonian University in Krakow. His research is focused on the history of Polish displaced persons during and after the Second World War in Africa and in the Middle East, as well as the British policy towards the representatives of the Polish Government-in-Exile in those regions. He is particularly interested in oral and comparative history. ORCID no.: 0000-0002-2460-7005. Contact: mikolaj.murkocinski@gmail.com

Karolina Wanda Olszowska, MA – PhD student at the Faculty of History of the Jagiellonian University and PhD Student at the Faculty of Philology of the Jagiellonian University; historian and Turkologist. Research interests: History of the Turkish Republic, especially after the Mustafa Kemal's rule, history of women in the Ottoman Empire, the Republic of Turkey in Turkish literature (with particular emphasis on Halide Edip Adıvar). ORCID no.: 0000-0003-0535-912X. Contact: karolinawanda.olszowska@gmail.com

Krzysztof Popek, MA – PhD student at the Faculty of History of the Jagiellonian University; graduated in history and Slavic studies. Author of the monograph „Turecka opończa, belgijska peleryna”. Obraz państwa bułgarskiego w twórczości satyrycznej przelomu XIX i XX wieku (Krakow 2016). Laureate of the grants Preludium 13, POWER 3.1, Scholarship of the Lanckoroński Foundation, and Scholarship of the Polish Minister of Higher Education. He specializes in the political and social history of the Balkan Peninsula in the 19th century. ORCID no.: 0000-0001-5864-5264. Contact: popek.kj@gmail.com

Aleksandra Samonek, MA – researcher at the Université catholique de Louvain, Institut supérieur de philosophie; PhD student at the Jagiellonian University, Institute of Political Science and International Relations; PhD student at the Jagiellonian University, Institute of Philosophy. Research interests: intellectual property law, information and communication security, the right to privacy, independent journalism. ORCID no.: 0000-0002-5742-7190. Contact : aleksandra.samonek@uclouvain.be

Paweł Sękowski, PhD – Assistant Professor in the Institute of History of the Jagiellonian University; PhD in Modern and Contemporary History from the Sorbonne Université and PhD in Humanities (discipline: History) from the Jagiellonian University. Main research interests: social and political history of Poland after WWII, history and sociology of immigration, history of refugees. Ongoing research project: Activity of the International Refugee Organization in the post-war Europe : The case of the caring action towards Polish displaced persons and refugees, 1947–1951 (as PI, project financed by the Polish National Science Centre, 2016–2020). Recent publication: Les Polonais en France au lendemain de la Seconde Guerre mondiale (1944–1949). Histoire d'une intégration, Paris : Sorbonne Université Presses, 2019. ORCID no.: 0000-0003-4743-7990. Contact: pawel.sekowski@uj.edu.pl

Jarema Słowiak, MA – PhD student at the Faculty of History of the Jagiellonian University, currently finishing his PhD thesis about the Polish Delegation in International Commission for Supervision and Control in Vietnam. He obtained MA in History (Battle of Khe Sanh 1968) and American Studies (US policy towards South Vietnam under the rule of Ngo Dinh Diem) at the Jagiellonian University in 2011 and 2015 respectively, and penned a book about the siege of Khe Sanh during Vietnam War (Khe Sanh 1968. American and Vietnamese Search for a Decisive Battle). ORCID no.: 0000-0002-3104-4415. Contact: jarema.slowiak@doctoral.uj.edu.pl

Paulina Szydłowska, MA – PhD student at the Institute of Psychology of the Jagiellonian University. Her research interests are focused on psychology of migration, social psychology and acculturation process of adolescent migrants. She is doing research in qualitative approach. ORCID no.: 0000-0002-2196-9940. Contact: paulina.m.szydłowska@gmail.com