

Introduction

We are pleased to present the thematic section of the 'Quarterly Journal of the History of Science and Technology', dedicated to Ukrainian Historiography. This section showcases texts written by Ukrainian scholars, focusing on the history of Ukrainian science, research, and historiography. Through their contributions, the readers can delve into the rich world of Ukrainian culture and trace its complex path through the centuries.

Ukrainian historiography holds its place in the global narrative of historical studies. The articles presented in this section offer valuable insights into the development, achievements, and challenges faced by Ukrainian scholars throughout history. By exploring the depths of Ukrainian intellectual heritage, we aim to foster a deeper understanding and appreciation of the contributions made by Ukrainian historians to the broader field of historical research. Each text in this section represents a distinct facet of Ukrainian historiography, ranging from comprehensive analyses of pivotal historical events to nuanced examinations of influential individuals and cultural movements influencing museography. These works not only offer a comprehensive overview of Ukrainian history but also illuminate the intricate connections between Ukrainian scholarship and the broader historical landscape.

As readers immerse themselves in these articles, they will uncover the evolution of Ukrainian historiographical subtleties, observing its growth from early chronicles to modern methodologies. The authors' meticulous research, critical analyses, and passionate exploration of Ukrainian historical narratives contribute to a deeper understanding of the country's past and its impact on contemporary scholarship.

We extend our sincere gratitude to the authors for their valuable contributions to this section, to the Editors for an opportunity to share our research, and to the Readers for their continued support. It is our fervent hope that this compilation of texts will serve as a testament to the enduring significance and vitality of Ukrainian science in these hard times.

Pavlo Medvediev
MetaScience, Kyiv, Ukraine
ORCID 0009-0003-8890-6615